7:30pm Great British Baking Show - Final

Just three challenges lie between the three finalists and the trophy. And what a trio of challenges they are: mastery of a classic pastry technique that normally takes a day - in just three hours; a Technical test that requires mastering the basics - with no recipe; and a Showstopper that demands delivery of perfect sponge, caramel, choux pastry and petit four in the bakers' final five hours in the tent.

9:00pm Masterpiece Classic - Downton Abbey, Season 5 - Episode 9

Season 5 of the international hit finds the Crawley family and the staff struggling with responsibilities and choices as they adjust to life in the Roaring Twenties. The beloved ensemble cast includes Dame Maggie Smith, Elizabeth McGovern, Hugh Bonneville, Michelle Dockery, Jim Carter, Joanne Froggatt and others. Written and created by Julian Fellowes. The Crawleys go to a shooting party at a castle in Northumberland and return to Downton for a joyful Christmas holiday.

7:30pm California's Gold - Smartsville

You've probably used this word at some point in your life and never knew that it was actually a town in California. Timbuctoo was once a bustling gold rush town named after that far away place in Africa. There's not much left, but Huell pays a visit to Timbuctoo, which is now privately owned. Next it's off to Smartsville, that due to a post office mandate had to lose the "S" and became Smartville. The good citizens never gave up calling it Smartsville and took their case all the way to the federal government, who finally agreed to give them back their "S".

8:00pm My Yearbook: 1960-1963 (My Music)

Repeat of 03/01/15 08:00am

The early 1960s were a time of joy, excitement and romance for teenagers and their parents as the music of the era spoke to them. Innocent school years were filled with songs of hope and heartbreak as pop music appealed to both the younger and older generations. In these years, parents and their children were connected by music on the radio and on TV, with songs that had mass appeal for both to enjoy. Pop crooner Bobby Vinton hosts his first "My Music" program, in this all- new archival clip special devoted to the golden pop years from 1960-1963.

10:00pm John Denver: Country Boy

11:30pm Fish Meat: Choose Your Farm Wisely

Did you know that over half of the fish you eat is farmed? But where does it come from? And how is it raised? Fish Meat is a film that seeks to answer the questions plaguing fish-lovers everywhere by taking viewers behind the scenes of fish farms. It's the only film on the market that explores the diverse array of fish farms in existence, and what those differences can mean for the consumer. Directed by Joe Cunningham, this documentary follows two scientists, environmental engineer Ted Caplow and fish biologist Andy Danylchuk, as they go on a journey to pull back the cover on modern fish farming. Sailing through Turkey, a country steeped in fish farming history, they discover that the most modern operations aren't necessarily the most sustainable ones.

Repeat of 03/01/15 11:30am

BrainChange reveals the devastating truth about the effects of wheat, sugar, and carbohydrates on the human brain, with a 30-day plan to achieve optimum health. Renowned neurologist David Perlmutter, MD, blows the lid off a topic that's been buried in medical literature for far too long: carbs are destroying your brain. And not just unhealthy carbs, but even healthy ones like whole grains can cause dementia, ADHD, anxiety, chronic headaches, depression, and much more. His New York Times #1 best-selling book, Grain Brain, is the first book of its kind to explore the insidious role our highly touted low-fat, high- carb diets play in a host of neurological conditions. The vast majority of us don't realize that our seemingly "healthy" daily habits are silently aggravating our nervous systems and setting us up for serious brain ailments. BrainChange shows that the fate of your brain is not in your genes. It's in the food you eat. Dr. Perlmutter, a leading international authority on nutritional medicine, has a disturbing yet empowering message: our brains are highly sensitive to certain proteins and sugars that are ubiquitous today-in our hand creams and organic ice creams, cocktails and coffees, multi-grain breads, whole fruits, and even brand name pharmaceuticals. In BrainChange, he shows us how to prevent, treat, and reverse a wide array of brain-related disorders by eliminating specific foods from our diets and making smarter lifestyle choices. Dr. Perlmutter is the only doctor in the country who is both a board-certified neurologist and a Fellow of the American College of Nutrition, making him uniquely suited to write this book and make this public television program. An in-demand expert for nationally syndicated radio and television programs, he has appeared on 20/20, CNN, Dr. Oz, Fox News, Good Morning America, The Today Show, and Oprah, among many outlets. Dr. Perlmutter also runs his own private practice, The Perlmutter Health Center, in Naples, Florida. (Next Air 03/04/15 10:00pm)

8:00pm Sacred Earth

Emmy-award winning filmmaker Jan Nickman has created two revolutionary, visual-feasts of natural wonders, pioneering an entirely new genre of "Nature Immersion Experiences." His films are extraordinary rides that go beyond the discussion about nature and carry the viewer into the experience of nature. Sacred Earth - as well as its companion film, Echoes of Creation -- is exquisitely crafted to allow the viewer to "feel" nature, as if actually being there. Each film is specifically designed for repeated viewing, to be watched again and again. The film has been successfully tested in pledge and this pledge event was created by KAET-Eight of Phoenix. Pledge hosts are Alice Ferris and Mitch Strohman. As KAET pioneered, the two films can compliment each other in a stack, or they can be used individually anywhere you need a shorter one-hour pledge program in your schedule As the result of director Jan Nickman's pioneering Music-to-Picture technique, viewers can have a new experience with each viewing - in much the same way music is enjoyed repeatedly. Sacred Earth was filmed in often inaccessible and sacred lands of Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, and California. Academy-award Winning actress Linda Hunt delivers poetic and contemplative spoken words for Sacred Earth. The original soundtrack was composed by Grammy-nominated composer David Arkenstone, and dancer Caroline Richardson, formerly First Soloist for the Royal Canadian Ballet, also appears in the film.

9:30pm Surviving Prostate Cancer

This year an estimated 230,000 men will be diagnosed with prostate cancer. Upwards of 400,000 more men will be diagnosed with prostatitis, a known precursor to prostate cancer. Once diagnosed with prostate disease, the aggressive, conventional, medical treatments are typically presented by the doctors as the only available option, often with a sense of urgency that discourages any other treatment considerations. This documentary challenges this automatic formula for treatment. After having been diagnosed with Prostate Cancer following a biopsy, 61 year old documentary producer Peter Starr, not liking the rate of success projected, or the potentially life-changing side-effects of the radical prostatectomy that was being offered by his urologist, began studying more natural, less invasive options. Following five years of study, and applying what he had learned to his own life, Starr began production of this ground breaking documentary. It took him to 8 countries on 3 continents, interviewing 56 doctors who shared the truth about natural healing and prostate cancer. These interviews provided the backbone of this production and endorsed the treatment that Starr had himself adopted. This is the first film created specifically to address overall prostate health, prostate cancer prevention, and proven "natural" treatments a patient can consider either instead of, or in addition to, the common conventional alternatives. 8:30pm Bala Brothers

Three gifted South African brothers, lifted out of poverty through their sheer musical talent, and already stars in their own country, promise to become one of the most exciting new vocal trios to take the world stage. Their Bala Brothers concert for PBS, produced by Daniel Hart, was recorded in the Lyric Theatre in Johannesburg and presents this multi-talented group accompanied by a chamber orchestra, five-piece band, and South Africa's famous Drakensburg Boys Choir. All three Bala Brothers received some of their earliest musical training and their love of performing as members of this very same choir. The Bala Brothers PBS concert presents a mix of South African-influenced music from Lion King favorites like "Circle of Life" and "He Lives in You" to Paul Simon's "Under African Skies." As a tribute to the late South African President Nelson Mandela, the Bala Brothers perform the Labi Siffre classic, "Something Inside So Strong" -- a moving moment in the program made all the more poignant by the presence of Winnie Mandela in the audience. The show closes with a roof-raising performance of "Pata Pata," the joyous dance song made famous by South Africa's "First Lady of Song," Miriam Makeba. The Bala Brothers' journey from the mean streets of the Kwa-Nobuhle township to a stadiumrocking performance at the 2013 Nelson Mandela Memorial Concert in Cape Town Stadium has seen each develop his own vocal style. Oldest brother Zwai emerged from early success with rap to become an all-round producer and arranger, from pop to classical. Loyiso is the rhythm and blues and gospel singer/songwriter and producer in the family, and youngest, Phelo, a newly-minted pop artist. Combined, these already seasoned voices transcend musical categories to produce an authentic and joyful sound in a wide range of repertoire, all grounded in their extraordinary African experience. 8:00pm This Is Your Do-Over with Dr. Michael Roizen

The 5 Do-Over Deeds that will change your life, and help you get your Do-Over! Do you ever wish you could erase the poor health choices you've made in the past, and start over with a fresh start? With Dr. Mike, YOU get a Do-Over! It doesn't matter what you've done in your past. You can change your habits, reverse the damage, and find a new beginning. Dr. Michael Roizen, Chief Wellness Officer at Cleveland Clinic, co-author of the YOU: Owner's Manual series, and dubbed "The Enforcer" on the Dr. Oz Show is back with life-changing medical advice aimed to help people turn their health around. In this 60-minute national PBS program, Dr. Mike reveals the 5 Do-Over Deeds that are the secret to losing weight, living longer, keeping your brain functioning, maintaining a healthy relationship in the bedroom, and finding total-body wellness. This is Your Do-Over is a second chance to change YOUR health destiny, and live a life with energy, happiness and wellness. If you look at today's health statistics, you'd have reason to believe that most of us are in some deep, deep trouble. More than one-third of American adults are obese and two-thirds are overweight or obese. Nearly one-third of Americans will have diabetes by the year 2050 if current trends continue. About 600,000 die of heart disease every year, consisting of nearly a quarter of all deaths. There are a predicted 1.6 million new cases of cancer that will be reported in 2014. The scariest part, perhaps is that even if you're not one of those statistics, you could well be on your way. We're a society that eats too much, moves too little, stresses all the time, and doesn't get enough sleep. Unfortunately, we're trending in the wrong direction. But the real truth doesn't lie in those numbers. The real truth lies in this fact: it's not too late for you to grab your do-over. No matter what kind of lifestyle you have led, no matter what bad habits you may have, no matter if you're a smoker or a marshmallow addict, you have the ability to get on track, start over, and reboot your body so that you can live a healthy life. The science shows that just like you can change directions in a car, you can change the function of your genes through lifestyle choices. All you need are the tools to do so. In This is YOUR Do-Over, Dr. Michael Roizen bolts down all that he has learned in the most important areas of wellness, and teaches you the 5 Do-Over Deeds that are the recipe for a better life. These are the tools to help you start over, whether you have one bad habit to change or need an entire life overhaul. Using the most cutting-edge data, anecdotes of those he's worked with, and the advice that has worked for the thousands whom he has personally coached, Dr. Mike provides the formula for a simple, yet effective, Do-Over in YOUR life.

7:30pm California's Gold - Trees of Mystery

The giant statue of Paul Bunyan greets visitors to this family run road-side attraction that has been open since the 1930's. Join host Huell Howser as he get a tour through some of the most amazing Redwoods in California, but its not just any old walking tour where you stare up at these impossibly tall trees; its a SkyTrail, which is basically a ski lift which gets you at tree-top level giving you an amazing new view. Among the many trees we'll visit is the Cathedral Tree - actually nine trees in one, when it fell it didn't die and the roots of the stump sprouted and these nine trees happened to grow together in a circle around the original mother tree's stump. This tree is the site of Easter services each year and also many, many weddings. We'll also see the Brotherhood Tree, which even after losing the top 74 feet in a storm, is still one of the largest living things in the world. It weighs in at over 2000 years old, 19 feet in diameter, 60 feet in circumference and 297 feet tall.

8:00pm Transatlantic Sessions

For more than twenty years Jerry Douglas - dobro master from Nashville and Aly Bain - the Shetland fiddle virtuoso have been inviting their friends from both sides of the pond to get together and play. And when your friends include the likes of Alison Krauss, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Bela Fleck, and James Taylor (just to name a few), you know you're in for something really special. See what unfolds when some of the best singer-songwriters of our time stop playing for an audience, and start playing just for the sake of the music.

9:00pm Sacred Earth

Emmy-award winning filmmaker Jan Nickman has created two revolutionary, visual-feasts of natural wonders, pioneering an entirely new genre of "Nature Immersion Experiences." His films are extraordinary rides that go beyond the discussion about nature and carry the viewer into the experience of nature. Sacred Earth - as well as its companion film, Echoes of Creation -- is exquisitely crafted to allow the viewer to "feel" nature, as if actually being there. Each film is specifically designed for repeated viewing, to be watched again and again. The film has been successfully tested in pledge and this pledge event was created by KAET-Eight of Phoenix. Pledge hosts are Alice Ferris and Mitch Strohmman. As KAET pioneered, the two films can compliment each other in a stack, or they can be used individually anywhere you need a shorter one-hour pledge program in your schedule As the result of director Jan Nickman's pioneering Music-to-Picture technique, viewers can have a new experience with each viewing - in much the same way music is enjoyed repeatedly. Sacred Earth was filmed in often inaccessible and sacred lands of Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, and California. Academy-award Winning actress Linda Hunt delivers poetic and contemplative spoken words for Sacred Earth. The original soundtrack was composed by Grammy-nominated composer David Arkenstone, and dancer Caroline Richardson, formerly First Soloist for the Royal Canadian Ballet, also appears in the film.

8:00pm Angels Sing, Libera In America

Angels Sing, Libera in America presents one of the world's most beloved boy choirs in a television concert recorded in Washington D.C. 's Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, North America's largest Catholic Church. It's the London-based 32-voice choir's second TV performance for PBS and their first to be sung in the U.S. Libera's 2013 program, Angels Sing, Christmas in Ireland, was one of the most watched Christmas shows on PBS during its December run. In this new performance, Libera's founder, arranger and conductor Robert Prizeman and producer Daniel Hart have created a concert which showcases Libera's soaring voices in a setting that magnificently reflects the original concept of the choir, with a sound that is both modern and ancient. While their white robes and angelic voices suggest a connection to Medieval monastery schools, the repertoire for Angels Sing, Libera in America is wide-ranging. From favorite hymns like "Be Still My Soul" and "Amazing Grace" to great American folk classics "Morning Has Broken" and "Wayfaring Stranger." The choir is accompanied by an 18-piece orchestra. A special Libera version of the Carole Bayer Sager/David Foster hit, "The Prayer," brings new resonance to the song when performed by the crystalline-pure voices of the choir's 9- to 17-year old members. The huge volume of architectural space available in the 3000-seat Basilica presented both a challenge and a monumental blank canvas for the lighting of the performance which was created for Libera to magnificent effect by one of Europe's most prominent lighting designers, Jeroen Jans from the Netherlands.

9:30pm Brainchange with David Perlmutter, Md

Repeat of 03/04/15 10:00pm

No Promo

BrainChange reveals the devastating truth about the effects of wheat, sugar, and carbohydrates on the human brain, with a 30-day plan to achieve optimum health. Renowned neurologist David Perlmutter, MD, blows the lid off a topic that's been buried in medical literature for far too long: carbs are destroying your brain. And not just unhealthy carbs, but even healthy ones like whole grains can cause dementia, ADHD, anxiety, chronic headaches, depression, and much more. His New York Times #1 best-selling book, Grain Brain, is the first book of its kind to explore the insidious role our highly touted low-fat, high- carb diets play in a host of neurological conditions. The vast majority of us don't realize that our seemingly "healthy" daily habits are silently aggravating our nervous systems and setting us up for serious brain ailments. BrainChange shows that the fate of your brain is not in your genes. It's in the food you eat. Dr. Perlmutter, a leading international authority on nutritional medicine, has a disturbing yet empowering message: our brains are highly sensitive to certain proteins and sugars that are ubiquitous today-in our hand creams and organic ice creams, cocktails and coffees, multi-grain breads, whole fruits, and even brand name pharmaceuticals. In BrainChange, he shows us how to prevent, treat, and reverse a wide array of brain-related disorders by eliminating specific foods from our diets and making smarter lifestyle choices. Dr. Perlmutter is the only doctor in the country who is both a board-certified neurologist and a Fellow of the American College of Nutrition, making him uniquely suited to write this book and make this public television program. An in-demand expert for nationally syndicated radio and television programs, he has appeared on 20/20, CNN, Dr. Oz, Fox News, Good Morning America, The Today Show, and Oprah, among many outlets. Dr. Perlmutter also runs his own private practice, The Perlmutter Health Center, in Naples, Florida. (Next Air 03/22/15 11:00am)

8:00pm Suze Orman's Financial Solutions for You

We all have financial issues and problems. Suze Orman's latest special sharply focuses on her helping individual viewers "find financial solutions for you." As always, Suze's advice is based not just on numbers, but on a critical understanding of ourselves and our emotional needs. The special's central theme is that our financial decision-making should be guided by an understanding of "the goal of money." As Suze perceptively defines it: "The goal of money is to make you feel secure." Our financial solutions should work to fulfill that goal. In addition, Suze stresses the importance of making financial decisions that you feel comfortable with. Financial problems are caused when you do things with money that do not seem "right" to you, despite pressures and advice from others.

10:00pm Bala Brothers

Repeat of 03/08/15 09:30am

Three gifted South African brothers, lifted out of poverty through their sheer musical talent, and already stars in their own country, promise to become one of the most exciting new vocal trios to take the world stage. Their Bala Brothers concert for PBS, produced by Daniel Hart, was recorded in the Lyric Theatre in Johannesburg and presents this multi-talented group accompanied by a chamber orchestra, five-piece band, and South Africa's famous Drakensburg Boys Choir. All three Bala Brothers received some of their earliest musical training and their love of performing as members of this very same choir. The Bala Brothers PBS concert presents a mix of South African-influenced music from Lion King favorites like "Circle of Life" and "He Lives in You" to Paul Simon's "Under African Skies." As a tribute to the late South African President Nelson Mandela, the Bala Brothers perform the Labi Siffre classic, "Something Inside So Strong" -- a moving moment in the program made all the more poignant by the presence of Winnie Mandela in the audience. The show closes with a roof-raising performance of "Pata Pata," the joyous dance song made famous by South Africa's "First Lady of Song," Miriam Makeba. The Bala Brothers' journey from the mean streets of the Kwa-Nobuhle township to a stadium-rocking performance at the 2013 Nelson Mandela Memorial Concert in Cape Town Stadium has seen each develop his own vocal style. Oldest brother Zwai emerged from early success with rap to become an all-round producer and arranger, from pop to classical. Loyiso is the rhythm and blues and gospel singer/songwriter and producer in the family, and youngest, Phelo, a newly-minted pop artist. Combined, these already seasoned voices transcend musical categories to produce an authentic and joyful sound in a wide range of repertoire, all grounded in their extraordinary African experience. 11:30pm Growing Up Green

Educational reform in the United States has largely focused on increasing test scores without changing the meaning of schooling for those expected to achieve academic success. As a result, student motivation and test scores have changed little, despite a nationwide effort. A few schools across the country have tried a different approach, focusing education around the places where students live and solving problems their communities face. While showing promise, these efforts have been largely isolated and piecemeal. However, they have helped set the stage for a unique statewide effort in Michigan, where for the first time, rural and urban schools, spanning a broad population base, focus school reform around the environments students inhabit. Growing Up Green, a new documentary from award winning filmmaker Bob Gliner (Schools That Change Communities, Lessons From the Real World, Democracy Left Behind) focuses on this groundbreaking work which hopes to serve as a model for changing environmental and educational outcomes as well as the way public education is practiced.

9:00pm Soundstage: Blues Summit In Chicago - 1974

Forty years ago, in November, 1974, a group of Chicago-based blues artists, who had already achieved legendary status gathered together with some of their younger 'blues brethren' from all over the country to pay tribute to the man most responsible for bringing blues from the Mississippi Delta upriver to Chicago-Muddy Waters. Appearing with Muddy that night were his contemporaries Willie Dixon, Koko Taylor, Junior Wells and Pinetop Perkins, and from the next generation of blues lovers and performers, Mike Bloomfield, Buddy Miles, Johnny Winter, Dr. John and Nick Gravenites - all artists who were on their way to becoming legends themselves. What resulted from that joyous teaming of 'fathers and sons' was a truly historic session that not only presented some of the greatest blues classics ever written, but also a never to be forgotten hour that truly demonstrates the love of music by one generation for another. And even more remarkable, the show became the first ever presentation of a public television series that was destined to become one of the most admired series of musical events ever televised. That night, in a show that hasn't been seen on television for four decades, Soundstage was born. And now, nearly a half century later, it's back to thrill new generations of blues aficionados. 9:30pm Effortless Healing with Dr. Joseph Mercola

Effortless Healing is hosted by Dr. Joseph Mercola. A well-known physician, Dr Mercola's website is one of the most visited natural- health sites in the world - a site dedicated to educating readers about ways to improve their health. He is one of the world's leading advocates for using food as medicine. In this program he helps people struggling with their weight and chronic conditions to make the connection to their food and lifestyle choices. He's an educator committed to teaching people how to cultivate their own power to heal. He believes the body is designed to be healthy without drugs, and in giving it what it needs to thrive, so it can regenerate itself without any outside interventions. This innate restorative tendency is what he calls "effortless healing." Rather than suggesting people rely on expensive and potentially dangerous drugs Dr. Mercola empowers people to become their own healers and helps viewers understand how they can effortlessly modify their diet to achieve their health goals. He covers the impact of gluten and sugar on the body, the benefits of intermittent fasting and exercise, and provides Effortless Healing Action plans throughout. He clearly outlines changes viewers can make in their lives, from eliminating certain foods to adding others, and illustrates the changes that could result. He puts forward principles of healing to arm viewers with information to choose more skillfully what and when to eat, what to drink, how and how often to move, and how to remove the roadblocks to wellness - such as subpar food and contaminated beverages - so that their body can do what it was designed to do effortlessly: stay well.

8:00pm Nature - Attenborough's Life Stories: Our Fragile Planet

In honor of Sir David Attenborough's 60th anniversary on television, this three-part miniseries focuses on three fields that David Attenborough feels have been transformed most profoundly: filmmaking, science and the environment. Richly illustrated with the sequences (re-mastered in HD) that Attenborough has spent 60 years capturing, new interviews in which he revisits the content, stories and locations that were featured in his landmark series, and packed with the personal anecdotes of the BBC's most accomplished raconteur, "Attenborough's Life Stories" is a singular synopsis of a unique half-century plus. In "Our Fragile Planet," Sir David Attenborough reflects on the dramatic impact that human beings have had on the natural world during his lifetime. He tells surprising, entertaining and deeply personal stories of the changes he has seen, the pioneering conservationists in whose footsteps he has followed, and the revolution in attitudes towards nature that has taken place around the globe. 9:00pm Nova - The Incredible Journey of the Butterflies

Every year, 100 million monarch butterflies set off on an incredible journey across North America. These beautiful creatures fly 2,000 miles to reach their remote destination: a tiny area high in the mountains of Mexico. Yet scientists are still puzzling over how the butterflies achieve this tremendous feat of endurance - and how, year after year, the monarchs navigate with such hair's-breadth precision. NOVA flies along with the monarchs, visiting the spectacular locations they call home and meeting the dangers they encounter along the way. As this program reveals, the monarch is a scientific marvel locked in an inspiring struggle for survival. (Next Air 03/19/15 02:00am)

Judy Garland had one of the most photographed faces ever to come out of Hollywood - it is stamped as a virtual imprint on our imaginations, a celluloid image frozen in time. She also had one of the most frequently recorded voices of the last century. She was magic, almost mythical. She is as iconic as she is misunderstood. There were her problems, to be sure, but the proof is in the performances, from The Wizard of Oz to the Palladium, from the Oscars to the Grammys. With singular entree to the MGM library, including vaulted screen tests and rehearsal footage, the film is wrapped in Judy's voice, actually telling her story in her own words. So many outsiders have tried to tell this story and so many friends and family have weighed in - now Judy gets center stage, all to herself. This is her ultimate comeback.

7:00pm World War II: Saving The Reality

Over the course of five decades, Kenneth W. Rendell amassed the largest and most comprehensive private collection of original World War II memorabilia in the world. Narrated by Dan Aykroyd, WORLD WAR II: SAVING THE REALITY opens the doors to this private museum located outside Boston. Rendell provides a guided tour of the museum's 30 exhibits, which chronicle the end of World War I and the rise of Nazism to the start of World War II and the fight in Europe and the Pacific. The period artifacts, both small and large, include propaganda posters, Hitler Youth uniforms, Winston Churchill's original siren suit, French Resistance clothing and radios, spy gadgets, General MacArthur's license plate, a Japanese admiral's uniform, Field Marshall Montgomery's signature beret and even a Sherman tank. Some of the museum's more significant documents include General Patton's copy of Mein Kampf and his personal map of Sicily, the original order to drop the atomic bomb on Hiroshima and a revealing letter from Dwight Eisenhower to his wife. Supplemented with archival photos and footage, the film also features interviews with more than 50 World War II veterans, civilians and Holocaust survivors who offer absorbing first-person accounts of these historical events and speak to the complexities, moral ambiguities and emotional toll of the war.

9:30pm Brainchange with David Perlmutter, Md
No Promo

Repeat of 03/22/15 11:00am

BrainChange reveals the devastating truth about the effects of wheat, sugar, and carbohydrates on the human brain, with a 30-day plan to achieve optimum health. Renowned neurologist David Perlmutter, MD, blows the lid off a topic that's been buried in medical literature for far too long: carbs are destroying your brain. And not just unhealthy carbs, but even healthy ones like whole grains can cause dementia, ADHD, anxiety, chronic headaches, depression, and much more. His New York Times #1 best-selling book, Grain Brain, is the first book of its kind to explore the insidious role our highly touted low-fat, high- carb diets play in a host of neurological conditions. The vast majority of us don't realize that our seemingly "healthy" daily habits are silently aggravating our nervous systems and setting us up for serious brain ailments. BrainChange shows that the fate of your brain is not in your genes. It's in the food you eat. Dr. Perlmutter, a leading international authority on nutritional medicine, has a disturbing yet empowering message: our brains are highly sensitive to certain proteins and sugars that are ubiquitous today-in our hand creams and organic ice creams, cocktails and coffees, multi-grain breads, whole fruits, and even brand name pharmaceuticals. In BrainChange, he shows us how to prevent, treat, and reverse a wide array of brain-related disorders by eliminating specific foods from our diets and making smarter lifestyle choices. Dr. Perlmutter is the only doctor in the country who is both a board-certified neurologist and a Fellow of the American College of Nutrition, making him uniquely suited to write this book and make this public television program. An in-demand expert for nationally syndicated radio and television programs, he has appeared on 20/20, CNN, Dr. Oz, Fox News, Good Morning America, The Today Show, and Oprah, among many outlets. Dr. Perlmutter also runs his own private practice, The Perlmutter Health Center, in Naples, Florida.

7:30pm California's Gold - Yosemite Buildings

When most people think of Yosemite, they imagine towering peaks and cascading waterfalls, but there is an amazing human history that is told through some of the many buildings that dot the valley floor. In this adventure, Huell discover two small buildings that are very historic and very beautiful. He visits the Yosemite Valley Chapel, which was built in 1879 and is the oldest structure in park. The little chapel continues to serve as a place of worship for residents and visitors alike, as it has done for over 125 years. Next it's off to the LeConte Memorial Lodge, a [ <http://www.cr.nps.gov/nhl/> ] National Historic Landmark, which was built by the Sierra Club in 1903-04. The unique structure honors eminent University of California geologist  [http://www.sierraclub.org/history/key\_figures/leconte/ ] Joseph LeConte, an early Director of the Sierra Club who died in the Valley in 1901. 8:30pm James Baker: The Man Who Made Washington Work

Narrated by Tom Brokaw, this award-winning documentary tells the story of James A. Baker, III, a remarkable politician and statesman who represents a time when our government functioned, Congress got things done, and presidents and politicians worked together. Baker, now 83, helped get three presidents elected, served in top posts for two of them, and was a central player in some of the most momentous events of the late 20th century. As White House chief-of-staff he masterminded the Reagan Revolution and got much of Reagan's ambitious agenda through a hostile Congress. As Treasury Secretary, Baker negotiated the Tax Reform Act of 1986, a legislative feat no one believed possible in a divided government, and arguably the last time we saw significant tax code revisions all sides could agree on. As Secretary of State Baker brought the Cold War in for a soft landing - working with Mikhail Gorbachev and Eduard Shevardnadze to maintain stability in Eastern Europe. Almost simultaneously, he put together the unprecedented coalition of nations to fight the first Gulf War. On the heels of that success, he organized the Madrid Peace Conference bringing Arab nations and Israel to the table for the first time in modern history. With candid testimony from Baker, and first hand accounts from former presidents Clinton, Carter, and Bush Sr., former Secretaries of State Rice and Kissinger, former Vice president Cheney, as well as a host of other Washington insiders, journalists and historians, THE MAN WHO MADE WASHINGTON WORK is an eye-opening behind-the-scenes story of power, persuasion and diplomacy at the highest levels. 10:00pm Frontline - The Vaccine War

Public health scientists and clinicians tout vaccines as one of the greatest achievements of modern medicine. But for many ordinary Americans vaccines have become controversial. Young parents are concerned at the sheer number of shots -- some 26 inoculations for 14 different diseases by age six -- and follow alternative vaccination schedules advocated by gurus like Dr. Robert Sears. Other parents go further. In communities like Ashland, Oregon, up to one-third of parents are choosing not to vaccinate their kids at all. And some advocacy groups, like Generation Rescue, argue that vaccines are no longer a public health miracle but a scourge; they view vaccines as responsible for alarming rises in certain disorders, including ADHD and autism. This is the vaccine war: On one side sits scientific medicine and the public health establishment; on the other a populist coalition of parents, celebrities (like Jenny McCarthy), politicians and activists. It's a war that increasingly takes place on the Internet with both sides using the latest social media tools, including Facebook and Twitter, to win the hearts and minds of the public. 7:30pm California's Golden Parks - Shasta

When most people think of Shasta Lake, they imagine themselves on a houseboat enjoying California's largest manmade reservoir. With 365 miles of shoreline it is a boaters paradise. What most people don't think about is the massive structure that is responsible for holding back the water that creates Shasta Lake. We're talking about 3,460 feet long and 602 feet high Shasta Dam which, is a perfect example of "California's Gold." Construction of the dam started in 1938 and ended in 1945. The spillway is the largest manmade waterfall in the world - three times the height of Niagara Falls. Shasta Dam has the second largest mass of any dam in the United States. In this adventure, Huell and Luis get a behind the scenes look at this engineering marvel. Miles of tunnels and millions of gallons of water make for an exciting day, but there is another aspect to the Shasta Dam - the human element. It is the people who built the dam, the people that poured concrete 24 hours a day for 5 1/2 years and the countless other jobs that make this structure such a gem. Huell meets several of the original dam workers and listens to their stories about the glory days of Shasta Dam.

8:00pm Nature - Ireland's Wild River

The Shannon is Ireland's greatest geographical landmark and the longest river. It is both a barrier and highway -- a silver ribbon holding back the rugged landscapes of the west from the gentler plains to the east. On its journey south, the Shannon passes through a huge palette of rural landscapes; where on little-known backwaters, Ireland's wild animals and plants still thrive as almost nowhere else. For a year, wildlife cameraman Colin Stafford-Johnson lives on the river -- camping on its banks, exploring its countless tributaries in a traditional canoe, following the river from dawn to dusk through the four seasons, on a quest to film the natural history of the Shannon as it has never been seen or heard or experienced before. 9:00pm Nova - The Bible's Buried Secrets

This two-hour special breaks exciting new ground in investigating the origins of the ancient Israelites, the evolution of their belief in one God and the creation of the Bible. For the first time, more than a century of literary detective work and decades of archeological excavation in the Holy Land will challenge viewers with provocative new insights, including that most Israelites worshiped pagan gods and many believed that God had a wife, who was venerated as an idol. A story of science, history and faith.

Martin is in London to meet with Robert Dashwood, who is leading the selection process for the prestigious London surgeon's job that he has applied for. Pleased that Martin has finally conquered his debilitating blood phobia, Robert is confident that Martin will be hired. On the train back to Cornwall, Martin is annoyed to be seated next to one of his patients, a sheep farmer named Jim Selkirk. Jim falls asleep and slumps onto Martin's shoulder - dead from heart failure! Theo, one of Louisa's students, becomes ill in class. His parents, Juliet and Richard Wenn, are certain that their child picked up the illness in Joan's chicken coop during a school field trip. Martin cannot deny it is a possibility and the couple announces their intention to sue Aunt Joan. Mrs. Selkirk returns to Martin's Surgery, and tells him she is now seeing visions of her dead husband. When she is found collapsed in her sheep pen, Martin is able to uncover the medical reason behind her hallucinations. When he receives Theo's test results point to Joan's innocence and Martin is finally able to identify the real source of his sickness.

7:00pm Company of Heroes

Easy Company, the 2nd Battalion of the 506th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 101st Airborne Division, widely known as the "Screaming Eagles," remains one of the most revered combat units in U. S. military history. The Army company's legendary exploits in World training, the soldiers of Easy Company parachuted into Normandy on D- Day and, later, into Holland for Operation Market Garden. They fought their way through Belgium, France and Germany, survived overwhelming odds, liberated concentration camps, and drank a victory toast in April 1945 at Hitler's hideout in the Alps. In 2009, 20 of the few remaining survivors from Easy Company shared their rarely told stories of sacrifice and courage for Marcus Brotherton's oral-history book project, We Who Are Alive and Remain: Untold Stories From the Band of Brothers. In A COMPANY OF HEROES, those same veterans - along with the families of three deceased others - recount the horrors and the victories, the bonds they made, the tears and blood they shed, and the friends they lost.

Walberg joins appraiser Catherine Williamson at the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute to discuss the Civil Rights Movement of the 20th century and to look at materials related to Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. Highlights include hand-colored Andy Warhol lithographs that were stuck on a shelf for around 20 years; a pair of southern dolls that includes an "Alabama baby" doll purchased for 50 cents; and a Frederic Remington portrait with a letter from the artist to the owner's great-grandmother, appraised together for $600,000 to $800,000.

9:00pm Cancer: The Emperor of All Maladies - Magic Bullets

The search for a "cure" for cancer is the greatest epic in the history of science, spanning centuries and continents. This episode follows that centuries-long search, but centers on the story of Sidney Farber, who, defying conventional wisdom in the late 1940s, introduces the modern era of chemotherapy, eventually galvanizing a "war on cancer." Interwoven with Farber's narrative is the contemporary story of a 14-month-old diagnosed with T-cell acute lymphoblastic leukemia. The film follows her as she and her parents struggle with the many hardships and decisions foisted upon a cancer patient. (Next Air 03/31/15 01:00am)

9:00pm Cancer: The Emperor of All Maladies - The Blind Men and the Elephant

This episode picks up the story in the wake of the declaration of a "war on cancer" by Richard Nixon in 1971 and the search for a cure. In the lab, rapid progress is made in understanding the essential nature of the cancer cell, leading to the revolutionary discovery of the genetic basis of cancer, but few new therapies become available. Not until the late 1990s do advances in research begin to translate into more precise targeted therapies with breakthrough drugs. Following the history during these fraught decades, the film intertwines the contemporary story of an oncologist diagnosed with breast cancer. Her emotional and physical struggles provide a bracing counterpoint to the historical narrative. (Next Air 04/01/15 02:00am)
